

PRESS RELEASE
from
COMMUNITY AND FAMILY SERVICES INTERNATIONAL
Office of the Executive Director
Telephone: (632)551-1977, 510-1046
29 November 2006

CFSI SOCIAL WORKER ELECTED PRESIDENT OF NATIONAL ASSOCIATION

Community and Family Services International (CFSI) is very pleased to announce the election of Mr. Froilan Maglaya as President of the Philippine Association of Social Workers, Inc. (PASWI) for the term that begins in January 2007 and ends in late 2008. PASWI has approximately 2,000 members.

Mr. Maglaya serves as Project Coordinator for the Park Avenue Initiative at CFSI Headquarters in Pasay City, Philippines. He joined CFSI after a decade of service as Social Welfare Officer for the City of Makati where, in 1999, he was named "Model Employee" by then Mayor Elenita Binay, MD.

Mr. Maglaya was elected as Member of the Board and Corporate Secretary for PASWI in December 2005. From October 2004 until September 2006, he served as President of the Makati City Chapter of PASWI. Mr. Maglaya also served as Vice-Chairperson of the National Capital Region for the Regional Committee for the Welfare of Disabled Persons from July 2005 until July 2006.

Mr. Maglaya earned his bachelor degree in social work at Concordia College in 1993 and obtained his licence in social work in 1994. He is presently completing his master's degree in social work at the Asian Social Institute in Manila.

Married to Mary Grace Aguirre-Maglaya, Mr. Maglaya is the father of six-year-old Regina Louise.

CFSI is Philippine-based humanitarian organization, protecting and promoting the human security of people uprooted by persecution, armed conflict, natural disaster and other exceptionally difficult circumstances in the Asia and Pacific Region. CFSI is now celebrating its 25th Anniversary. For more information, visit www.cfsi.ph.